

Policy on attendance by non-members at CAUDIT General Meetings

At its meeting on 27 November 2006 the CAUDIT Executive agreed the following policy in relation to attendance by non-members at CAUDIT General Meetings.

- Attendance of non-members is by invitation of the Executive only
- Numbers of non-members attending general sessions will be restricted
- Non-members who are invited to speak will normally be able to attend the entire session during which they present and any appropriate break. Invited non-member speakers are not expected to attend other sessions of the General Meeting.

The Chair may exercise discretion in relation to the above.

This policy was agreed by the CAUDIT Executive in January 2007.
