The Only Constant is Change
Innovation in Scholarly Communication
Mr. Philip Kent – University Librarian

Information Futures Commission 2008
Chaired by Vice Chancellor – Professor Glyn Davis
10 year strategy
Endorsed by Council and Academic Board July 2008
SIIG 2009/10
11 projects, 2013 words
University Collections

New scholarly resources relevant to the Collections
9 Projects

Enhancement of the existing Collections
5 Projects

Unlocking the Collections to a wider audience
5 Projects
Outcomes and Impact

Collaboration and Engagement
- External engagement
- Postgraduate engagement
- Undergraduate engagement
- Collaboration across university

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Projects</th>
<th>0</th>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
<th>6</th>
<th>7</th>
<th>8</th>
<th>9</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Outcomes and Impact

- Included exhibitions or symposia
- Have been conference presentations
- Have already led to publications
- Are part of continuing programs
- Attracted additional funding

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Projects</th>
<th>0</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>6</th>
<th>8</th>
<th>10</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Areas of emerging technology identified are:

Time to adoption: 1 Year or Less
- Electronic Books
- Mobiles

Time to adoption: Two to Three Years
- Augmented Reality
- Open Content

Time to adoption: Four to Five Years
- Gesture-based Computing
- Visual Data Analysis

Established technologies for
- Web delivery of content
- Database development

Collectively created content in
- Wiki resources

Emerging technologies, such as
- Mobile devices
- Augmented reality
- Visualisation of data
Augmented Reality

Visual Data Analysis

THE EVOLUTION STARTS HERE
Questions?

Mr Philip Kent
pgkent@unimelb.edu.au

Ms Donna McRostie
mcrostie@unimelb.edu.au

Assoc Prof Peter Tregloan
patreg@unimelb.edu.au

http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/

Attribution 4.0 International