From ‘Teaching on Video’ to ‘Teaching Through Video’

Jamie Morris, Peter Mellow, Susan Batur
Learning Environments, University of Melbourne
James.Morris@Unimelb.edu.au
The University of Melbourne
Figure 6.4 The Investment Opportunity Set with a Risky Asset and a Risk-free Asset in the Expected Return-Standard Deviation Plane.
INFORMAZIONI
solo in inglese

APA In text – choices

"Direct quotations" – Author's exact words
Do not overuse

Author focus

Paraphrasing (indirect quoting) or summarising – present the idea in your words – still need to cite

Idea focus

The important point for educators is that there is clarity in the intention of the policy (Jones & Willis, 2004). This is significant because it highlights the need for clear direction in the...
Videos included location based interviews, case studies and studio green screen presentations.
An 8-part video series giving Parkville based students an insight into the methods, operations and challenges involved in a working farm environment.
A Massive Open Online Course examining the many benefits and applications of music therapy
Aunty Daphne Milward
Yorta Yorta country
The course consisted of 49 videos and 8 podcasts delivered via the Coursera platform.
Several production styles were utilised such as documentary, interviews and studio based presentations.
zotero.org/groups/thetavideo le.unimelb.edu.au/showcase melbourne-cshe.unimelb.edu.au
James.Morris@unimelb.edu.au